In Person Events

SOCMA Show Yearly

The SOCMA Show unites the specialty and custom chemical supply chain, providing a platform for businesses to conduct transactions, discover solutions, and exchange best practices. What distinguishes the SOCMA Show from other trade shows is our tailored support for both exhibitors and attendees, coupled with year-round resources aimed at facilitating connections between companies and enhancing their visibility within the industry. The event also features educational programming centered around the latest commercial issues affecting your business.

SOCMA Summit Yearly

The SOCMA Summit brings together senior executives to strategically prepare for the year ahead. This two-day executive meeting provides chemical industry leaders the perfect setting to step back from operational demands and engage in meaningful discussions about market trends, regulatory developments, and business opportunities with peers from across North America.

Roundtables Spring, Fall

SOCMA organizes Roundtables across the U.S. in regions where there are concentrations of members and specialty chemical companies. These events offer a platform for industry colleagues within the supply chain to network, engage in discussions about top-of-mind issues and exchange best practices. Topics covered range from C-Suite and commercial matters to environmental, health, and safety concerns, addressing the most pressing challenges faced by both your company and the industry as a whole.

Member Site Visits Quarterly

SOCMA conducts on-site visits to member company locations throughout the year to deepen our understanding of your business and the challenges you face. These visits enable our team to engage more closely with your staff and identify ways in which we can further support your company's goals.

Executive Dinner Series 3X Per Year

The SOCMA Executive Dinner Series is an exclusive, invitation-only event tailored for senior executives within our member companies. This high-level forum provides a unique opportunity to cultivate strategic relationships, exchange insights with industry peers, and explore emerging trends shaping the specialty chemical sector.

Technical and Safety Programs

ChemOps Training Yearly Subscription

ChemOps Training is the go-to source for training. With interactive 3D animations of process equipment, self-guided assessment exercises, user progress tracking and more through the Learning Management System (LMS), this superior, modernized training tool enables you to effectively train and onboard your chemical operators. As a SOCMA member, you receive heavily discounted pricing for this modern training tool that boosts employee retention rates.

ChemStewards® Ongoing

SOCMA's environmental, health, safety and security management program is dedicated to enhancing employee safety, employee and community health, reducing a facility's environmental impact, and continually strengthening facility security throughout the supply chain. All SOCMA members manufacturing chemicals in North America are part of ChemStewards®, or an equivalent EHS management program.

Safety Recognition Program Yearly in the Fall

Rooted in your company's best practice sharing culture and the collaborative spirit of fellow SOCMA members, the SOCMA Safety Recognition Program provides a platform to highlight your facility's ongoing safety initiatives in four crucial areas: Process Safety, Emergency Planning & Response, Stakeholder Engagement & Communications, and Material Transfer.

ChemStewards® Audit Assistance As Needed

SOCMA collaborates with organizations to align their existing systems with the ChemStewards program. Our team assists you in identifying processes and systems you already have in place, minimizing the workload required for implementation.

Regulatory & Legislative Assistance

Regulatory Advocacy Ongoing

SOCMA works with all federal agencies, including EPA, OSHA, FDA, USTR and DHS, on key issues impacting your business. Through engagement with agency leadership and lawmakers, SOCMA influences and produces positive outcomes on your behalf and the industry at-large.

Policy Series Yearly in April

SOCMA brings members together with regulatory and legislative officials for updates and dialogue around top industry issues impacting the specialty chemical industry. This annual event has been held both in-person and virtually.

Individual Member Support Ongoing

SOCMA's Government Relations team works as an extension of your staff to assist with regulatory hurdles and to help advocate for specific issues impacting member companies. SOCMA leverages its relationships with policymakers and regulators to help member companies overcome challenges. We directly connect your company with key regulators in agencies such as EPA, OSHA, FDA, DHS, USTR, among others.
